

STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE AND INSTANTLY KILLED

Elbert M. Thomas, Eight Years Old, of Chesterfield, Is Victim of Accident.

DRIVER HELD BLAMELESS

Youth Jumps From Wagon in Front of Approaching Car—Chemist at Du Pont Plant Is Killed by Explosion of Ether.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PETERSBURG, Va., October 12.—Elbert M. Thomas, eight years old, son of W. J. Thomas, late of South Boston, Va., now of Colonial Heights, Chesterfield County, just across the river from Petersburg, was run over by an automobile this afternoon, shortly before 3 o'clock, on the turnpike near his home. The boy was riding on a wagon belonging to a citizen of Chesterfield, and when near his home jumped off. As he did so he was struck and run over by an automobile. His skull was fractured and he was otherwise injured. He died almost instantly. The name of the driver of the automobile could not be learned, but it is stated that he was not to blame for the unfortunate accident. Mr. Thomas moved to Chesterfield from South Boston but a short time ago. The body of his son will be sent to South Boston for burial.

Justice Lindie, acting coroner, viewed the body of the youth and turned it over to J. T. Morris & Son of this city to be prepared for burial. An inquest will be held to-morrow.

A. P. Hill Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans, has appointed the following officers for the coming year: J. Du Pont, president; L. R. Goulder, Henry C. Southall, Wilson Cole, S. D. Rodgers and Lewis Clark. A. P. Hill Camp of Veterans has already elected its delegates to the grand camp meeting.

Death in Hospital.
J. A. Ingersoll, a young chemist employed in the laboratory of the Du Pont plant, died in the company's hospital yesterday. A few days ago he was severely injured by an explosion of ether, from the effects of which his death resulted. Mr. Ingersoll was about twenty-five years old and a native of Maine. His body will be sent North for burial.

Wedding Notes.
Miss Lou C. Ryland and John Albert Hawke, both of this city, were married at noon today. Rev. J. S. Ryland, uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony at his home in Spotsylvania County. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. R. T. Ryland, and for several years was a popular teacher in the public schools here. After their wedding trip the couple will reside in Rocky Mount, N. C., the business headquarters of the bridegroom.

Saturday night at the Elrick M. E. Church, paragonage, Miss Lillie Belle Hargrave and Charles Washington Gault, both of this city, were married by Rev. C. C. Jones. The attendants were Miss Stella Pond, as maid of honor, and Jesse Lodge as best man.

Narrow Escape.
About noon today as a Chesterfield woman was driving down Swanmore Street in a buggy, her horse shied at an automobile near Courthouse Avenue, and turning suddenly ran against the fender of a street car. The horse was thrown, the buggy overturned and the occupant was thrown under the car. Fortunately the motorman very quickly stopped his car and the woman was uninjured. The buggy was not broken home. The car fender was badly broken.

Suffragists at the Fair.
Mrs. B. B. Valentine, president of the State Suffrage League, will speak on the suffrage movement at the Petersburg Fair, Wednesday of next week. Other speakers accompanying Mrs. Valentine will probably be Miss Higgins, of Nebraska, and Adele Clark, of Richmond. The request of the league that the suffrage question might be presented at the Fair was very freely granted by the board of directors of the association.

Eleven in Penitentiary.
Eleven prisoners, convicted and sentenced at the September term of the Hustings Court, have been taken to the penitentiary to serve their terms, which range from one up to ten years. Cecil Tyson, negro, and five years for manslaughter, and Julius Griffin ten years for second degree murder.

Sentence Reduced.
In the Hustings Court to-day the sentence of the jury, sentencing Raphael Devashar, a Greek, to a term of five years in the penitentiary for killing Albert Landagus, a fellow Greek, was set aside. The accused then pleaded guilty, and to-morrow the court will sentence him to three years in the penitentiary. The two men were employed in the same restaurant, where the fatal difficulty occurred.

News Notes of Interest.
Robert Kelly, a white employee at the Du Pont plant, was brought to Petersburg to-day in a serious condition, suffering from a badly fractured skull, the result of an accident.

The colored hospital at Birdville, in this city, was opened this afternoon for inspection, and the admission of patients, with appropriate exercises. The hospital will be used for tuberculosis cases.

There is a veritable business boom in Petersburg. Business houses and residences are being erected all over the city.

There were sharp frosts in this section on Sunday and Monday mornings, and some damage was done. The tobacco crop, however, is all safely housed.

The double-tracking of the City Point railroad is being pushed with all possible speed, and will soon be completed.

The West End Baptist Church has extended to the School Board the use of its men's class room to aid in relieving the congested conditions of the schools in the neighborhood.

At Weldon, N. C., on Saturday, Miss Prancella Young, daughter of Mrs. Helen Young, of Dinwiddie, and Henry F. Kitter, a contractor at the Du Pont works, were married by the Rev. J. A. Hornaday.

Capitol Closed To-Day.
Governor Stuart has directed that all offices at the Capitol be closed to-day, and officials and employees given a holiday on account of Richmond Day at the State Fair. The Governor expects to be at the fair to-day, and other prominent State officials will also attend.

WASHINGTON INSISTS ON SUFFICIENT SAFETY

Placing of Passengers and Crew in Small Boats Does Not Meet Requirements.

GERMANY IS SO INFORMED

Another Note Is Dispatched to Berlin in Controversy Over Destruction of William P. Frye—Language Is Not Intended as Demand.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WASHINGTON, October 12.—The State Department to-day dispatched the answer of this government to Germany's last note offering a plan for the settlement of the controversy over the sinking of the American merchantman William P. Frye by the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich.

The salient features of the American reply was:

This government holds on the contention that Germany, under the Prussian treaties of 1795-1828, has a right to sink an American merchantman laden with contraband. The United States cordoned this right conditionally in cases of necessity.

The United States agrees that the value of the hull of the Frye may be arbitrator by a commission of two, one to be appointed by each government.

DOES NOT ACKNOWLEDGE SMALL BOATS ARE SAFE.

The United States asserts, however, that it does not acknowledge that putting the passengers and crew of prizes of destroyed vessels into small boats carries out the intent and purpose of the provisions of the Declaration of London which cover the subject of the safety of noncombatants.

State Department officials say that there will be further discussion of the latter proposition. They admit that in practice notes Germany has been complied officially on her disposition of crews and passengers, but it is not yet assumed by this government that all submarine vessels can perform the service of seeing that passengers and crew are taken to a place of safety.

The United States insists, as in all other notes, that warning be given to vessels before attack, and that where there is no resistance the general rule applies that noncombatants be placed in safety.

The note makes the further point that as the case of the Frye is one arising under special circumstances between Germany and the United States, this government has a right to make specific the terms under which the settlement is to be secured.

The general opinion of officials who have discussed the note is that a way will be found by which the United States and Germany will agree on the measures to be taken for the safety of passengers, inasmuch as Germany has declared for the principle.

NOTE ONLY INTENDED TO GET GERMAN VIEW.

Officials say that the language of the note, referring to the case of passengers, is not "a demand" on Germany, but a statement in order to secure the German view on a question which has not been raised heretofore.

A close paraphrase of this paragraph of the note, obtained from a high source, is as follows:

"As the German government has advised the United States that it will abide by the Declaration of London as to treatment of passenger ships carrying actual contraband, this government does not understand that the Declaration of London means that the safety of passengers and crew can be accomplished by allowing such passengers and crew to take to the small boats."

The State Department will arrange for the publication of the note after the receipt by the German Foreign Office. It requires about two days to get such documents from Washington to Berlin.

Landmark Is Destroyed.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
HARRISONBURG, Va., October 12.—Fire of unknown origin destroyed the old Wheat homestead near Lynwood, together with all of its contents. Mrs. John C. Wheat and three children had barely time to escape with their lives. Mr. Wheat was absent from home.

The old mansion was built in Colonial days and was a landmark in that part of Rockingham. The loss is about $5,000, partly covered by insurance.

Lime Combats Tuberculosis.

"It is difficult to escape the conviction that lime starvation and lime assimilation are the real issues behind the masks of vulnerability and resistance in tuberculosis," wrote the late Dr. Van Gleason, M. D., in the N. Y. Medical Record, 1912.

Ordinarily, lime is not easily assimilated, but Eckman's Alternative contains it in such form and combination as to insure assimilation by the average person. This explains its success in many cases of tuberculosis which apparently have yielded to it.

Containing no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, it is safe to try. Sold by Frigle Drug Co. and leading druggists.

Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia.

BROADSIDE FROM ROOSEVELT

Former President Pours Volley of Verbal Machine-Gun Fire Into Those Who Pose as Americans, but Fail to Forget Foreign Extraction.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NEW YORK, October 12.—Ex-President Roosevelt, speaking before the Knights of Columbus in Carnegie Hall to-night, poured a verbal machine-gun fire into what he termed "hyphenated Americans." Incidentally, he accused the German embassy of incitement to the destruction of property and the crippling of American industries.

"There is no room in this country for hyphenated Americans," he declared. "When I refer to hyphenated Americans, I do not refer to naturalized Americans. Some of the very best Americans I have ever known were naturalized Americans, Americans born abroad."

"But a hyphenated American is no American at all. This is just as true of the man who puts 'native' before the hyphen as of the man who puts 'German' or 'Irish' or 'English' or 'French' before the hyphen. Americanism is a matter of the spirit and of the soul. Our allegiance must be purely to the United States. We must unapologetically condemn any man who holds any other allegiance. But if he is heartily and singly loyal to this republic, then no matter where he was born, he is just as good an American as any one else."

ONE CERTAIN METHOD OF BRINGING RUIN TO AMERICAN SPIRIT

"The one absolutely certain way of bringing this nation to ruin, of preventing all possibility of its continuing to be a nation at all, would be to permit it to become a tangle of squabbling nationalities, an intricate knot of German-Americans, Irish-Americans, English-Americans, French-Americans, Scandinavian-Americans, or Italian-Americans, each preserving its separate nationality, each at heart feeling more sympathy with Europeans of that nationality than with the other citizens of the American republic."

"The men who do not become Americans and nothing else are hyphenated Americans; and there ought to be no room for them in this country. The man who calls himself an American citizen and yet shows by his actions that he is primarily the citizen of a foreign land, plays a thoroughly mischievous part in the life of our body politic. He has no place here; and the sooner he returns to the land to which he feels his real heart-allegiance, the better it will be for every good American."

"There is no such thing as a hyphenated American who is a good American. The only man who is a good American is a man who is an American and nothing else."

Mr. Roosevelt cited many Americans who were foreign born and yet had played an important patriotic part in American history.

"To take charge of the most important work under my administration," he said, "I chose General Goethals. Both of his parents were born in Holland, but he was just plain United States."

WORLD PEACE, FANTASY; WARS WILL CONTINUE

Not Until Militaristic Order Is Changed Will Nations Be Ruled by Dove.

COUNT OKUMA PESSIMISTIC

Japanese Statesman Can See No Hope So Long as One Nation Exalts Itself Above Other, and Does Not Hesitate at Force.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 12.—Count Okuma, Japanese Premier, and Dr. Ng Poon Chew, a Chinese editor, of San Francisco, told delegates to the International Peace Congress to-day that world peace was yet a fantasy, and will be until the militaristic order of things is changed. In a message to the congress, Count Okuma said there was no hope for peace "as long as there exists nations of individuals who believe or exist themselves as absolutely superior to others, and to assert that superiority do not hesitate to appeal to martial force."

On the floor of the congress to-night, Dr. Ng Poon Chew added to Count Okuma's statement:

"There will be wars and more wars just so long as there are two codes of laws and two standards of morality, one governing nations, the other individuals."

War, the doctor said, was going to keep right on in one place or another. Even China was preparing. He blamed Western militarism, which he said, had not only paralyzed China, but had destroyed her ideals of peace, and he called Japan the disturber of the peace of the Orient.

"If the United States were as unprepared it would fare no better than China at the hands of the world powers," he said. "China has learned her bitter lesson, and now is proceeding to abandon its code of morality, just as the foundation of the state, and to take up the practice of brute force."

"Japan is the disturber of the peace in the Orient. She is essentially a military nation and has in herself the perfect compilation of the militarism of Germany, and the navyism of England. Her ambition is boundless."

With such neighbors what must China do but prepare for defense. Before the European war broke out we imported a large number of men, the followers of the prince of peace, from Europe, the seat of christianism, over to 'Heaven China.' If you are pleased to call us so, to instruct us to turn our plough shares into swords and our pruning hooks into spears."

Selfishness, jingoism, yellow journalism and politicians are chiefly responsible for misunderstandings that have existed between the United States and Japan, said Mr. Kiyo Sue Inui, a lecturer of the Japanese Society of America.
